Cleveland – November 5, 2018 – WOW! Internet, Cable & Phone (NYSE: WOW), a leading broadband and communications service provider, continues to make progress in its quest to bring high-speed Internet service to Cleveland-area communities in which 1 Gig speeds were previously unavailable.

- Wickliffe

“Access to fast and reliable Internet is a key component to fueling the growth and connectivity of our smaller communities,” said Greg Argetsinger, WOW!'s vice president of operations for Cleveland and Columbus. “Our goal is to deliver an exceptional customer experience by providing 1 Gig speeds to customers so they can browse, stream, game and conduct business at the fastest speeds available today.”

These four communities will have access to WOW!'s 1 Gig fiber-to-the-neighborhood Internet speeds, the fastest available today, along with WOW!'s Whole Home WiFi, which provides customers a custom, scalable network to stream, work and browse from every corner of their home.
